Admissions Info Sessions: Gatewayct.edu/applynow

FAFSA Workshops: Gatewayct.edu/FinancialAid

A completed FAFSA is needed to determine Financial Aid eligibility. A FAFSA can be submitted online at FAFSA.gov. If you need assistance, please attend the Workshop in Room N-201.

Graduation/Degree Works Workshops: Gatewayct.edu/graduation

Do you have 40 or more credits? Then come join us for a graduation/degree works workshop in room N204. Run a graduation audit and review any requirements you may have left with an auditor from the Registrar's Office.

Placement Testing: Gatewayct.edu/placement-1

A placement test is required for all students who have not successfully completed college-level English and/or math classes. November 17 placement tests are from 9:00am to 12:30pm.

NSAR: Gatewayct.edu/nsar

New Student Advising and Registration (NSAR) is a mandatory 2-hour program designed to assist new students in understanding the academic world, and to register for their first semester of courses at the college.

Additional Super Saturdays will be held
January 5 & 12, 2019 • 9 AM - 2 PM

All Student Affairs offices are open until 7 PM on Wednesdays.
