Turn your summer get-a-way a summer get-a-head!

The GREAT Center’s Summer Workshops

Creative Writing Workshop
This course will use expert guidance and motivation to help writers explore and expand their skills beyond the basics. Students will learn to create interesting dialogue and create multi-level characters through creative exercises that will get thoughts and ideas growing! Sign-up today to discover the writer within.
CRN: 2250
Dates: Tuesdays June 14, 21, 28 & July 5, 12, 19
Time: 5:30pm to 8:30pm - Room N010
Instructor: Margaret DeMarino
Cost: $350

Journaling: The Path to Self-Discovery
Writing a journal involves taking a journey into the soul. It helps bring perspective, insight and meaning into everyday life. This class, will take a peek into the life of the famous and the unknown through their journals. The main focus will be on developing journal writing skills and to explore various techniques that bring greater depth to the journaling experience, including visualization, morning pages, memory lines, and round robins.
CRN: 2249
Dates: Wednesdays August 10, 17, 24, 31
Time: 1:00pm to 4:30pm - Room N103
Instructor: Margaret DeMarino
Cost: $250

The Stories We Tell
This workshop will unleash the inner writer! Under the guidance of a professional writer, create memorable works of fiction, memoirs and more.
CRN: 2248
Dates: Thursdays July 14, 21, 28 & August 4
Time: 1:00pm to 4:30pm - Room N010
Instructor: Margaret DeMarino
Cost: $350

For more information
Merilee Baker Roussat
The GREAT Center at Gateway
(203) 285-2128
MBakerRoussat@gatewayct.edu